

3. TWINS

Two brothers, twins, of which one always lies, and the other constantly speaks the truth, are at the crossroad where one road leads to "life" and the other to "death". " Passenger is coming at the crossroad and, has the right to ask only one question only one of the twins, and find out which way leads to life! However, passenger don't know which one of the twins lies, and which one tells truth. Which question should he ask?